The Salt Lake Board of Realtors Elects New President, Officers And Directors

5 February 2008 (Sandy) – Jillinda Bowers has been elected as the president of the Salt Lake Board of Realtors. Bowers, a sales associate at Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage in Sandy, will serve for one year in the position. She succeeds Gary Cannon, co-owner of RE/MAX Associates in Salt Lake City, who served as president in 2007.

Other elected officers included: Ryan Kirkham, who will serve as 1st vice president. Kirkham is the principal broker and co-owner of Salt Lake-based Kirkham and Friends. Bill Heiner, associate broker at RE/MAX Associates was elected as 2nd vice president. Mindy Mason, associate broker at Prudential Utah Real Estate in Midvale, is this year's treasurer.

Newly elected directors include: B. Thomas Colemere, principal broker of Salt Lake-based Colemere Realty; DeAnna Dipo, associate broker of Draper-based Distinctive Properties; Lisa Hyte, associate broker at RE/MAX Canyons in Salt Lake City; and Charlotte Thomas, associate broker and co-owner with Keller Williams South Valley Realty in Riverton. Directors serve a four-year term.

The 16-member board of directors is charged with establishing governing policies of the roughly 8,000-member association. The board also oversees member programs and financial operations.
